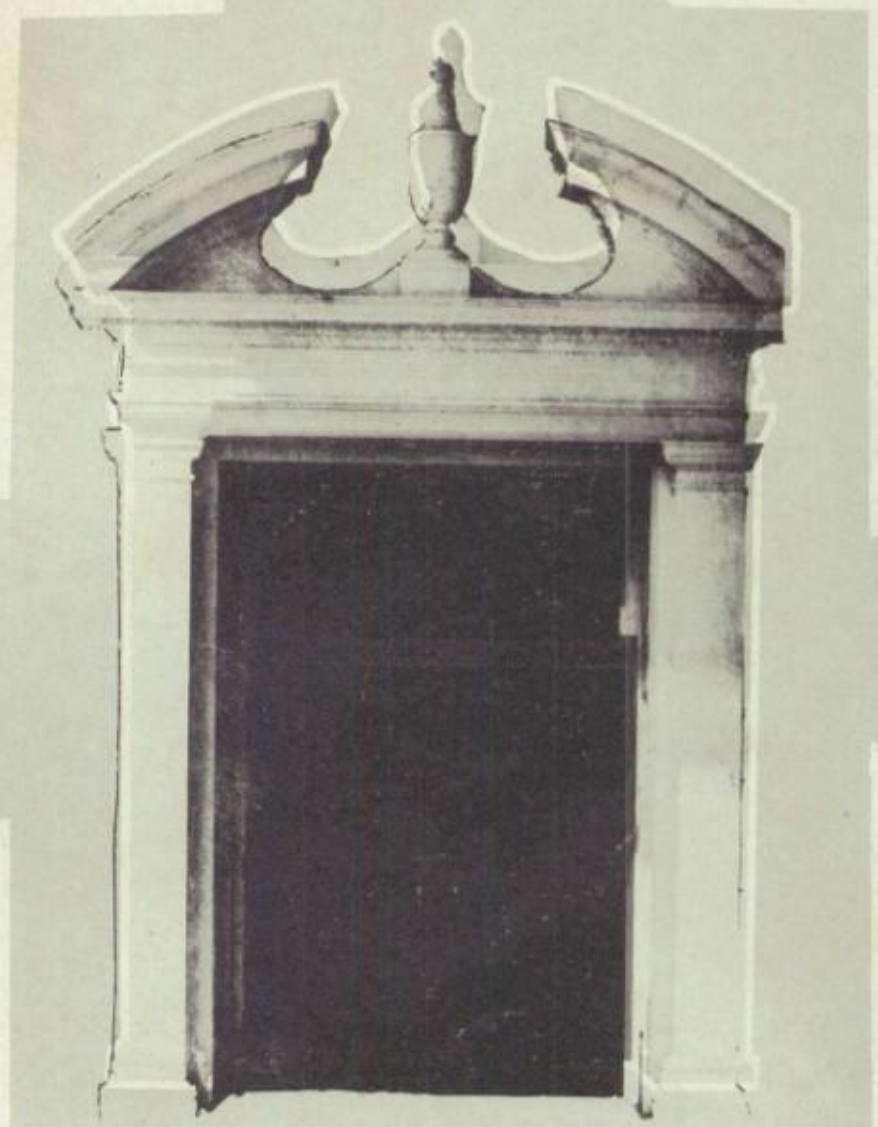
Lord Loudoun

THE 1955 LORD LOUDOUN

LOUDOWN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL
Leesburg, Virginia



FOREWORD

This book seeks to present a mirror of life at Loudoun County High School. On its pages we see reflections of students engaged in all phases of living associated with a modern school.

Loudoun County High School is one of the crowning achievements of the citizens of Loudoun County. Individual pupils, each with his wealth of undeveloped resources, have enrolled here to take their places in a venture of democratic participation, sharing ideas and knowledge and being in turn tempered by these experiences. The adolescents who came here with eager hearts and open minds emerge as thinking individuals, better equipped, through awareness of ability, to face the perplexing problems of our highly complicated society.

Yes, the citizens of Loudoun are proud of their heritage, and Loudoun County High School is proud to be instrumental in helping to teach them how to preserve it.

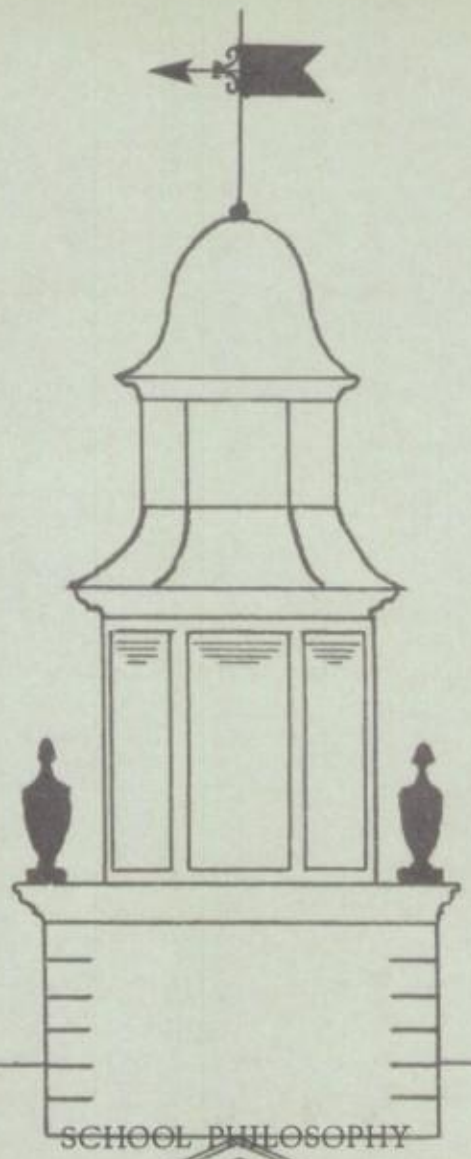
DEDICATION

To Mr. Oscar L. Emerick, the superintendent of public instruction in Loudoun County, the pupils of the Loudoun County High School dedicate this 1955 Lord Loudoun, the first year-book of our school. It is through his persevering leadership that we have come at last to the realization of a dream - a consolidated high school for our county; we make this dedication in sincere appreciation of his lifetime of devotion to the highest ideals of education.



SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY

Compiled by the principal and approved by the faculty of L. C. H. S.

We, the faculty of Loudoun County High School, feel that the function of our school is to educate all the children of high school age, who have a legal right to attend Loudoun County High School, to the extent that they will be able to exercise their full abilities in whatever pursuits they may enter.

We conceive of the school as being an extension of the home and as supplementing the home in its efforts to direct the child into the acquiring of proper attitudes and skills.

LOUDOUN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

We believe that one of the major functions of the school is the transmission of the cultural heritage. Cultural training can best be brought about through those courses which are concerned with the dissemination of general information. We deem general education, therefore, to be highly important to all who are to become citizens of our democracy; for it is through general education that the individual is enabled to understand his fellow man.

Believing as we do that general and cultural training are of high importance, we do not deny that in this complex age a decided need exists for the acquisition of skills which may aid in the effort to acquire a living; therefore we subscribe to the teaching of agriculture, industrial arts, commercial courses, and others which may aid pupils to become self supporting and to contribute to the general welfare of the social order.

We believe that the development and maintenance of an intelligent citizenry is most essential to the continued well-being of a democracy and that this citizenry can be developed only by a concerted and co-ordinated effort on the part of the home, the school, the community, and the church. Therefore we urge that such cooperation on the part of these four agencies be established and maintained.

We also feel that a school can help only those people who are on its rolls consistently throughout their school careers. Therefore we feel that our school should give careful attention to its power to hold pupils--that the school is an institution in which conscientious people endeavor to develop in youth those attitudes which lead to good citizenship. Therefore we shall do our utmost to enroll all the children of high school age in the area served by the school and shall endeavor to retain them so long as we can help in their development into individuals who are able to contribute to the good of the social order, or until they are graduated.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

A new phase of life began in the fall of '54 for one-hundred and sixty-two students who entered Loudoun County High School as seniors. Although we have no history as a class, we got our first year together off to a good start by electing Betty Williams as president.

We set our goals high; and, with firm determination, we have tried to promote friendliness, courtesy, and good sportsmanship throughout the school. We want to be remembered for establishing standards such as these, and we hope all the underclassmen will follow our example.

Knowing that through union comes strength, we are standing together to face all the events yet to come in our senior year. We take pride in being the first graduating class of L. C. H. S., not only because ours is a beautiful new building, but also because of the knowledge we have gained that enables us to look at the future with renewed faith. We can be proud, too, because we will have made our history.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

THOMAS F. LINDSEY, Doctor of Psychology, was busy leafing through his appointment book, when suddenly he looked up with surprise and explained to his head nurse, JANICE BUCK, that one of their former teachers, Mrs. Myers, was coming in the afternoon to express some of her deep thoughts about the class of '55, first graduating class of L.C.H.S. At this moment his secretary, GENEVIEVE BAKER, came in to remind Dr. Lindsey of his luncheon date with the famous pediatrician, MOLLY C. BRADSHAW.

Usually Dr. Bradshaw was very prompt, but when she explained that she had been almost run over by a truck driven by LESTER BENNETT, her delay was understood. Lester and JOHN SCHULTZ were in competition with their trucks to win a very promising contract from BRUCE McINTOSH in his agricultural ventures.

It was rumored that state policeman, BRICKIE PEACH, was patrolling their districts to make sure they obeyed all rules of safety.

MARY FURR, the telephone operator, called to inform the receptionist, ELAINE COMPTON, that Mrs. Myers had left for her appointment. On leaving the taxi, Mrs. Myers saw several of her former students.

FREIDA BENJAMIN, MARY ELLA BODMER, BETTY LOY, and ANN POPOVICH, who were employed as secretaries, were hurrying back to work after a coffee break. Their employer, lawyer LYNN THOMAS, met them at his office door with a look of disgust--third coffee break this morning--could it be they were interested in ATHEY and BUMPUS' Construction work going on outside? As she turned the street corner, she suddenly found herself under a magnifying glass belonging to ALICE EDWARDS, the F.B.I. agent, who was surveying for clues on her latest mystery. Her secretary, SALLY MARTZ, had the job of compiling her closed cases into a volume illustrated by PAT STYLES and published by the RUFUS CAMPBELL Publishing Company.

As she walked down the street, she passed the new Safeway designed by architect TERRY BALL. She had heard it was under new management with SHIRLEY HOUGH and DAVID WHITE. She stopped and went into JEANNIE CARNES' beauty salon to make an appointment to have her hair fixed. There under the dryer sat JANE McGAHA, owner of a chain of Dime Stores. Jane, chatting with PATSY GRAY SHEAFFER, who had just finished doing some shopping for her family, appeared nervous and explained that she dreaded to think about her next appointment, which was with LETA SUE BRANN, the painless dentist.

As it was getting close to time for her appointment, Mrs. Myers left in a hurry for her business at the medical building. While waiting to be announced, Mrs. Myers picked up the latest edition of Vogue and noticed ANN ROYSTON on the cover modeling a new creation by BEVERLY BURTON with the caption "Burton vs. Dior." JOYCE FLYNN, the main hall nurse, led Mrs. Myers to the elevator and she met BETTY WILLIAMS on her way to Betty's private office where she had charge of the student nurses. The elevator stopped at the sixth floor; and Mrs. Myers stepped off, only to trip on the carpet being laid by the employees of the NEWKIRK Modern Atomic Laundry.

She was helped to her feet by the famous football star, DONALD BEACH, who had just been in for a physical check-up. She walked into the office and relaxed on the couch which had formerly been occupied by such famous people as the great "Met" singer, CHARLOTTE ORRISON, the illustrious engineer, WILLIAM TIETZ, the brilliant electrical technician, TED JACKSON, and RUBY LIGHT, who had become overwrought taking a "census" of fingerprints for the F.B.I. In thought she began to recall those people whom she had known in '55. Suddenly she was buying a ticket from SYLVIA WEANING, reservationist, on the Waugerman-Moran airway, owned by SAM WAUGERMAN and HERMAN MORAN, to go to Hollywood and attend the premier of a new movie co-starring SHIRLEY PENDLEY and FRANK EATON. As she boarded the plane, she was greeted by JUNE HALL and RUBY FOX, the hostesses. SALLY INGERSOLL was a passenger on the plane, too; she was on her way going to take a screen test for swimming the Mediterranean Sea. BILLY KIMES, the mining engineer, was on the plane, going to Colorado to see a new element, Saturneum, which had been isolated by the exalted chemists, JOAN LIPPS and TOMMY SOWERS. On his way to the Methodist convention was the Reverend RALPH WINDLE seated next to the revolutionary secretary, PHOEBE CRIMM, who had just written a new commercial book, "How To Act Bright-Eyes While Sleeping." JOHANNA KEISTER and JANIE COOPER were on their way to teach dancing at the M.G.M. studios. The pilot, JOHN ALTMAN, called for KITTY LOU KIDWELL, air line nurse, to attend to BETTY SUE ELLMORE, the outstanding novelist who was suffering from heart-burn. Her secretary, JOAN BAKER, seemed worried because she didn't have such bad attacks often. JOSEPH CORNETT, a government executive, was traveling home from an Eastern convention with his secretarial staff consisting of HELEN ENDRESS, DELORES CARNES, MYRA JEAN GEORGE, and LINDA LOWRY. They were excited over the dresses designed by MARIE LESTER, who had competed in Paris shows. JEAN HERNDON, the home economist who replaced Betty Crocker, had asserted a new plan called "Pil-a-Day," a replacement for food which was being tried as an experiment by the families of BETTY CORE, PEGGY DILLARD, JANE GLASCOCK, SUE HOOKER, and SYLVIA SWAIN. Although "Pil-a-Day" was very time-saving, the husbands were complaining they'll never get "middle-age spread" on pills. The co-pilot, BRUCE WILSON, announced the next stop; and several distinguished gentlemen from the armed services got on the plane to go view new talent in Hollywood for an over-seas show. They were Sgt. JAMES COCKRELL, Gen. BOBBY FARMER, Col. DONALD FOUCHE, Corp. EDDIE GEORGE, Lt. EDWARD GRAY, Adm. JAMES KEMPER, and Rear Adm. CHARLES ROLLISON. These men were selected because of their ability by our country's first woman president, PATRICIA SHOAF. At this stop, DIANA QUERY and KATIE MAE PEARSON took over as hostesses. Reading material was passed out by the nurse, MILDRED JACKSON; and Mrs. Myers was delighted to see that two of her former students, DICK BOGGESS and ROBERT FUTRELLE, who were working in the field of engineering, were soon to make a trip to Princeton University and replace Einstein, whose opinions were now considered outmoded. The well-known equestrienne, BARBARA GRAHAM, was reading one of the latest farm magazines edited by PAUL ALLISON. Her attention was centered on an article listing the six farmers in the U.S. - BILLY McCLELLAN - top fruit producer, LEE RIDGEWAY - top crop farmer, GEORGE MENTZER - beef rancher, WILLIAM WASHINGTON - top vegetable farmer, CHARLES SENSABAUGH - top dairyman, and WILLIAM SURFACE - famous for his mechanized farming. His machinery was designed by HARRY FLING and JIMMY SMITH. Mr. Surface gave to WAYNE CROUCH, FREDDIE HATCHER, and SONNY TRIBBY all credit for keeping his machinery in perfect condition; and to his bookkeeper, EDDIE WRIGHT, for his efficient work in keeping records straight. The Secretary of Agriculture, GAYLE POTTS, had written an article on the new U.P.I. experimental project which had been surveyed by LEROY FRANKLIN.

CURTIS SHOCKLEY, the president of Johns Hopkins, was on the plane; he was going to Columbia University to lecture on smoking cigarettes backwards for less nicotine. With him were his secretaries - SHIRLEY BOLEY and MARLENE CAREY, and his head nurse, BARBARA WILSON. BARBARA CARTER and BUNNY LEONARD were also passengers; they planned to visit JIMMY GEIMAN and GAYLE CUNNINGHAM, to compile notes on "How to Teach Basketball Without Stepping on the New Gym Floors." The replacement pilots, LYNNE YAUGER and TUBBY WELSH, instructed all passengers to fasten the safety belts for the landing at the Hollywood Air Port.

On arrival, Mrs. Myers headed for the souvenir counter; there she was waited on by ERNESTINE REYNOLDS. As she hurried down the street, she paused at the familiar sound of NANCY REPASS' hit song coming from GEORGE TITUS'S ecord shop. Glancing in, she saw TOMMY JACKSON, the professional baseball player, browsing around under the watchful eye of BOBBY McINTOSH, the clerk. Passing a school, she noticed EVELYN FLORANCE and NANCY ELGIN holding a ladder for a co-teacher, ROSALEE GRENATA, who was untangling a kite from the new color television antenna which had been recently installed by electrician PAUL RUNION. The secretary, BETTY SMITH, was calling directions from the second-story window. ANNA MAE FIELDS, the 4-H leader, and her secretary, JEAN MULLEN, were just arriving in a car ....Mrs. Myers was surprised to see SHIRLEY EVERHART, PATSY HACKLEY, MAUREEN FINAN, DELAINE FINCHAM, HELEN JEWELL, DOROTHY BRAMHALL, JULIA REID, and SHIRLEY STRAWSBURGER, all secretaries, coming out of L. G. POLAND'S business establishment. She met a lawyer, JIMMY JACKSON, talking to four clerks, JIMMY SANTMYER, JIMMY SUTPHIN, GAYLE YATES, and TOMMY FRYE. "Just trying to get the facts" said Jimmy, and he seemed to be getting four sets of them!

BUDDY FLIPPO, the comedian, was entertaining a group at the street corner. Among those listening were a WAC, NANCY FLEMING; two secretaries, DORIS HAGENBUCH and JEAN KITTS, from the office of Senator FRED SAYLOR; three members of the school board, ANN HANSBARGER, JIMMY HUTCHISON, and LORRAINE LANHAM; and several nurses, SANDRA McDOWELL, JOAN RAY, ROSEMARY ROBINETTE, and SUE ANN WENNER.

At this moment Dr. Lindsey interrupted to summon another psychiatrist, JOAN SPRAGUE, and several more secretaries, FLORENCE ROLLISON, MARY ELLEN SMITH, MABEL THOMAS, and ELIZABETH WILLIAMS. Mrs. Myers explained that she had had to rush because of a dinner engagement with the librarian, MALINDA TRITTIPOE, and SYLVIA MILLER, a commercial teacher. Walking along, she noticed a building contractor, BILLY RUTTER, and his assistant, FRANKLIN REDMAN, who had just returned from Africa; they were working on a building.... After collaborating, the two psychiatrists came to the conclusion that too much hard work and strain in connection with her last school annual was the reason for Mrs. Myers' visit. They prescribed plenty of rest...While getting her prescription from the druggist, she noticed HAROLD MACKNET, an engineer, and his secretary, GAIL ZINK, having a soda....She took the doctor's advice.

THE "CUSHION PERIOD" ?

Problem: Find the cushion!

Our school has been indeed fortunate to have a most excellent cafeteria. The menus have been varied and appetizing. The group of skilled workers who, under the direction of Mrs. Louise Carr, have prepared our meals, included Mrs. Annie Simmons, Mrs. Easter Cullen, Mrs. Mae Dodd, Mrs. Glenda Dawson, and Mrs. Pauline Demory.

SAFETY PATROL

The Loudoun County High School Safety Patrol under the able and energetic direction of William Peach, Jr., has performed creditably during the first year of operation.

The Safety Patrol consists of fifty patrolmen, four lieutenants, and one captain.

Captain Peach is in charge of the Patrol operation, assisted by lieutenants Shirley Flynn, Betty Sue Tibbs, Charles McWilliams, and Danny Kirkpatrick,.

Patrol duties during the year have been confined principally to bus duty; which is, as the reader knows, tedious, responsible, and unappreciated.

Mr. J. Lupton Simpson, sponsor of the Safety Patrol, and Mr. James R. Racey, Co-sponsor, feel that the young ladies and young gentlemen of the patrol have turned in a job that should be commended by everyone directly or indirectly connected with the school.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bragg and Mrs. Hough, has been organized with the purposes of stimulating interest in the business world and giving the members a better understanding of business. To fulfill these purposes, business men have spoken to the club; and studies have been made for the correct procedures in business. Small essentials such as typewriter covers have been bought for the commercial department by this club. It has also helped the seniors, who are interested, to secure commercial jobs.

Vice President . . . . . Molly Fox
Secretary . . . . . Janie Cooper
Treasurer . . . . . Eddie George

The football season of the school year of 1954 - 1955 started a record that we hope this school will continue. The best high school football team this county has yet produced--best in strength, best in teamwork, best in sportsmanship--has been formed through two factors: the combined abilities of the athletes of the former four small high schools and the efforts of those leaders who have put long, hard hours of work into the making of this team.

LOUDOUN 27 - CLARKE COUNTY 14

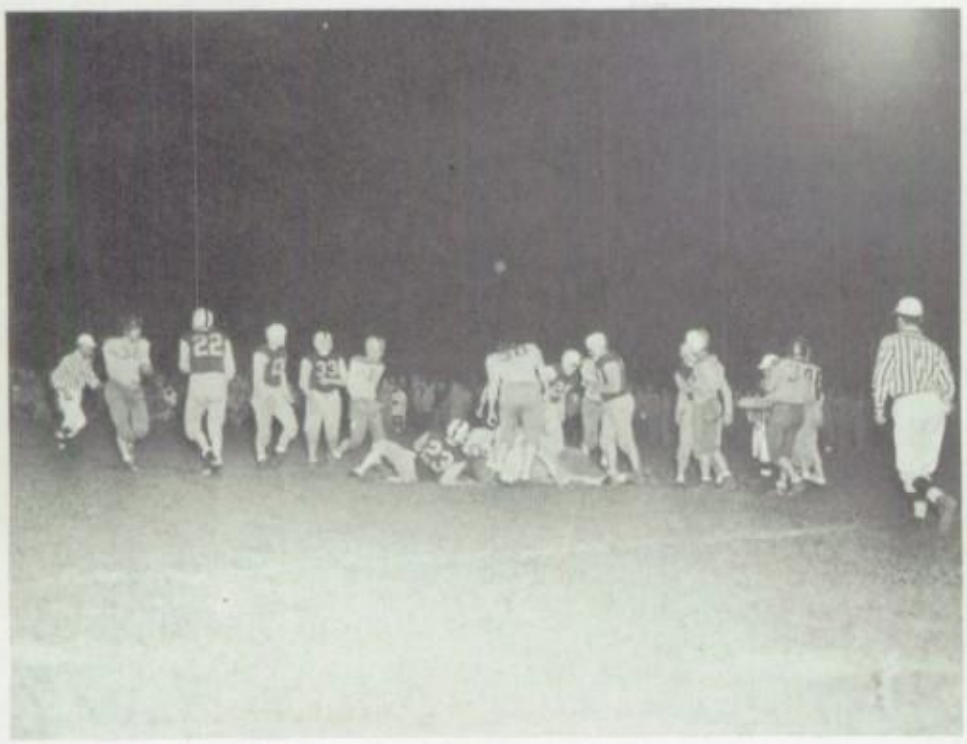
The Loudoun-Clarke County game opened the 54-55 football season on September 24 for the Raiders, with the odds 3-1 in favor of Clarke. The Raiders gave a splended exhibition of teamwork; and at the end of the half, Loudoun was leading 13-7. During the third quarter Clark pushed downfield for a touchdown; but the Raiders, hitting hard, scored again to win the game 27-14.

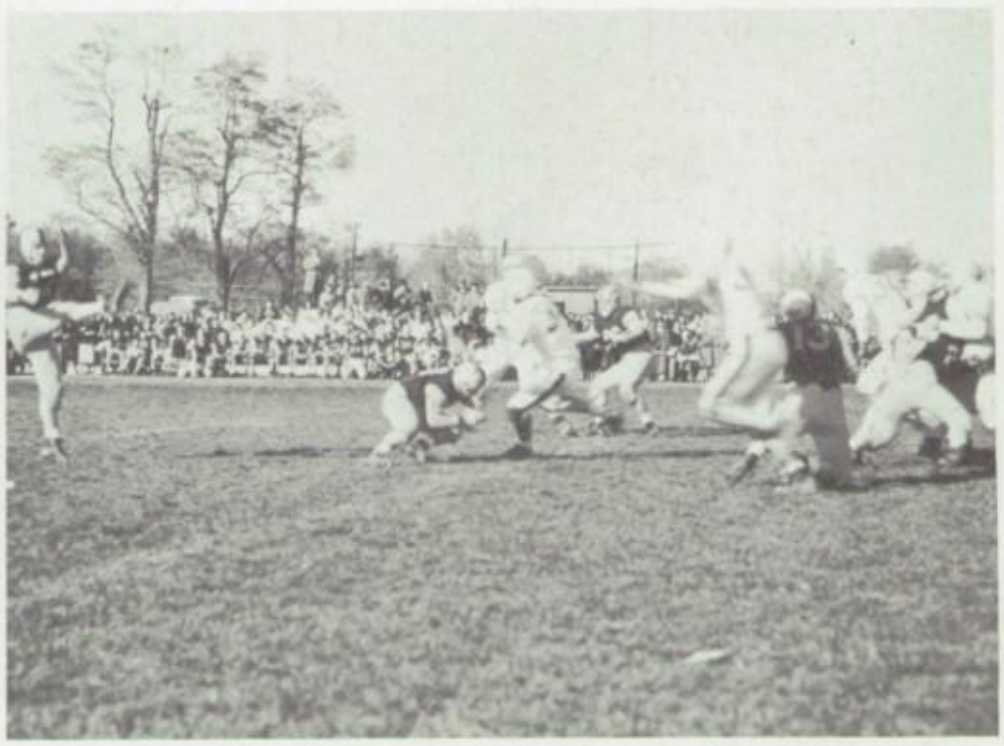
LOUDOUN 12 - MARSHALL 6

The second game of the season was played on October 8, with Marshall at Leesburg. The Wolves got the first touchdown of the game and threatened again before the half. In the third quarter Beach broke through the line and made a spectacular run for 68 yards to score our first touchdown. Still going strong, the Raiders scored again near the end of the game and racked up a final score of 12-6.

LOUDOUN 19 - JAMES WOOD 7

The Raiders moved to Winchester on October 15 for their game with the Colonels. James Wood started the game off with a bang and held the Raiders back until the end of the second quarter, when Geiman pushed down field for a touchdown. For the last touchdown of the game Smith dashed 50 yards, to end the game with a final score of 19-7.





LOUDOUN 28 - GARFIELD 0

The fourth game of the season was held at Occoquan on October 23. The Raiders steadily advanced downfield on ground plays. James Smith took a hand-off from Geiman and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. Geiman shot a pass to Bunny Leonard, who scored the Raiders' second touchdown. Early in the third quarter Donald Beach took a hand-off from Geiman and broke through the line for another touchdown. In the fourth quarter Geiman passed to Heflin, who scored. The final score was 29-0.

LOUDOUN 27 - HARPER'S FERRY 14

Loudoun met its toughest opponent on October 29 at Harper's Ferry. Harper's Ferry made the first touchdown af the game through short plays but Loudoun came back before the half. At the half the Raiders were leading 13-7, but it was still anybody's game. In the third quarter Harper's Ferry again came to the lead, but Loudoun in last 3 minutes by Geiman passing to Bunny Leonard, bounced back to score another touchdown. Smith broke through Harper's Ferry line to rack the final score, 27-14.

LOUDOUN 39 - HERNDON 6

The Raiders piled up their 6th straight victory on November 6 when we played our homecoming game with Herndon. Through excellent playing Loudoun led the Hornets at the half with a score 7-6. Loudoun really began to play ball after the half and in the third quarter we gained two more touchdowns, thanks to Bunny Leonard and the 90 yard run by Beach. The final touchdown of the game was made by Hutchison, bringing the final score to 39-6.

LOUDOUN 39 - GEORGE MASON 0

The Raiders staged the biggest upset of their unbeaten season on November 13 with the brilliant defeat of George Mason at Falls Church. Through excellent playing and the spectacular 50 yard pass play Geiman to Heflin, the score was 26-0 at the halftime. During the third quarter, the Mustangs fumbled and Loudoun regained the ball. In the last half, the Raiders made two touchdowns to bring the final score to 39-0.

She is also in charge of questionaires and transcripts of all people who have formerly attended a high school in Loudoun County.

MRS. CLAYTON O. KEPHART

Mrs. Kephart is the guidance counselor for the five hundred eighth-and ninth-graders. She registers these students and helps them with their problems, both academic and personal. These students have the most trouble adjusting to high school life which is very confusing to them unless there is a special person to whom they can go when they need help, a person who they feel is sincerely interested in their success and happiness, and who by talking with them about their school work and their problems can advise them. Schedules, records, personal problems, conferences between parents and teachers, and often with teachers, parents, and pubils combined make up the work of the counselor.

Mrs. Kephart also visits homes and has enlisted the help of such agencies in the county as the Health Department, Welfare Department, and the Children's Guidance Clinic.

The making of schedules, the keeping of records, and transcripts are included in this work.

HOMECOMING

The first "Homecoming" ever to include the high school graduates from all parts of Loudoun was held on November 6, 1954. To grace the occasion, students had selected a court whose members presided in state over a football game between the Loudoun Raiders and the Herndon Hornets. The Raiders won with a score of 39 to 6.

In the court, Kitty Lou Kidwell was queen; her princesses were Catherine Fox, Betty Jane Campbell, Ann Altizer, Mabel Ait, Donna Cummings, Shirley Pendley, Barbara Graham, Barbara Furr, Janice Buck, and Mary Ellen Smith.

A MATTER OF HABIT

Would you rather have the habit of getting on or of keeping poor?

Neither is a matter of fate or luck---but rather a mere matter of HABIT.

What you're in the habit of doing will make you what you're going to be.

So, if your habits are leading you in the wrong direction, change your habits.

Actions, repeated regularly, become automatic---habit.

The person who thinks he can't save has the wrong mental habit. He has something to uproot, overcome.

What are YOUR habits with money?
